

DR. HOWARD COHN

MEDIA KIT 2023

I've spent the last 30 years traveling globally, lecturing and teaching internationally on the subjects of emotional health, nutrition, and natural and alternative health care. It's been an incredible journey being able to see so many people experience life-changing results from the transformational holistic therapies and plant-based, organic nutritional products that I have developed over the years.

Along the way, I have met some amazing leaders in the industry which I am proud to recommend many of their services and products as resources to empower more people everyday to take control of their health.

Because after all, your HEALTH is your WEALTH.
